FIGHTING IN LIMA..

Government Forces and Rebels Engaged in Battle for Three Days.

MAKING READY FOR PEACE.

Several Changes Made in the Japanese Cabinet Which Will Have a Bearing on the Peace Negotiations with China.

BARANICO, Peru, March 20.-The rebels and government troops have been engaged in battle in Lima for three days. The attack by the rebels began about 4 o'clock Sunday morning. The rebels were commanded by their Chief Pierola, assisted by Durand, Ore and others. All communication with Lima has been cut off and it was impossible to learn the strength of either party. It is known, however, that there was a heavy cannonade and musketry fire Sunday and Monday. This continued almost without cessation until sundown Monday. Two distinct explosions were heard Monday, but the place where they occurred is not

There was a renewal of the firing at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, and it continued for six hours. It is reported that the fighting then ceased, so as to permit the contending forces to care for the dead and wounded.

From one source it is reported that President Caceres holds the palace, the principal plaza, the Stacattlima and the exposition square. It is also reported that he closed all avenues of approach to the city with armed forces. There is another report that a detachment of the rebels entered the city, but is hemmed in by the government troops. The rebels, so the report says, are awaiting reinforcements, which are expected to reach the suburbs of Lima to-night. So far as known, the houses and buildings in the city are uninjured, except a few high buildings which were riddled with bullets. Foreigners living in this village are endeavoring to organize an urban guard to protect property from looters, who last night attempted to commit depredations.

Making Ready for Peace.
Washington, March 20.—The Japanese legation has received cable information of several cabinet changes, one of which is Matsu Gata, to be minister of finance. He is one of the foremost statesmen of the east on financial matters. These cabinet changes and the appointment of Prince Komatsu as commander-in-chief of all the military forces of Japan are regarded as having a significant bearing on the peace negotiations now in progress, and as clearing the way for the declaration of an armistice and the cessation of hostilities. Thus far the military commands have been divided among several marshals, conducting different campaigns. The concentration into the hands of one man, closely in accord with the imperial household, would facilitate an armistice. The new minister of finance will have charge of the enormous cash indemnity in gold or silver to be paid by

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

Terrible Explosion of a Dynamite Cargo Reported from Germany. Cologne, March 20.—It was reported this morning that a terrible explosion of dynamite has taken place at Oberwsesel on the Rhine and twenty-five persons had been killed, two ships been destroyed and many houses wrecked. Oberwessel is a town of Rhenish Prussia, about 19 miles from Coblentz on the Rhine. Its population is estimated to be about 2,500.

The Amsterdam Nieuwes Van Den Dag publishes a dispatch saying that the disaster was the result of the explosion of the cargo of 20,000 kilos of dynamite on board the ship Elizabeth at Salmorth, in the district of Dusseldorf, yesterday evening. According to this dispatch thirteen persons were killed, five were injured and one went mad. The scene after the explosion is described as being one of terrible deso-

This bill, which is now a law, is spreading consternation among the maller storage warehouse men of the city, many of whom cannot give bond in so large a sum and will consequently be driven out of business. There has been a report to the effect that the bill was gotten up by several of the larger storage man here, with the end in view of driving the small men out and thereby getting a monopoly on the business.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Locked-Out Union Stove Workers Fight Their Non-Union Substitutes. VALPARAISO, Ind., March 20 .- A special from Dowagiac, Mich., says: This city, which is the location of the immense plant of the Round Oak stove works, was the scene yesterday afternoon of serious strife between union and non-union men. Lester Cooper, a non-union laborer, was struck with an ax and probably fatally injured. In the melee, which became general, a score of workmen were seriously injured. Arrests have been made and it is feared serious trouble is imminent. The Round Oak Stove Co., until a recent lockout, employed union labor exclusively. The present trouble is the outgrowth of differences between employers and employes.

CLEVELAND'S IDEA

A COMPLICATED SITUATION.

Events in South America Reaching a Stage Where the United States Must Defend the Monroe Doctrine or Abrogate It.

WASHINGTON, March 20.-Congressman McCreary, of Kentucky, has had a long talk with the president since the latter's return and says that Mr. Cleve land will accept any invitation that may be extended by any foreign powers of Europe for an international monetary conference. Mr. McCrary, it will be remembered, was one of the delegates of the United States to the last conference at Brussels. A few days ago Congressman Culberson, who is one of the delegates to the next conference, gave an opinion that the law was so framed as to give little latitude for this country to join in a conference.

The provision of the sundry civil bill on this subject authorizes the president to accept an invitation to "any international conference called with a view to secure internationally a fixity of relative value between gold and silver as money, by means of a common ratio between these metals, with free coinage at such a ratio." Judge Culberson gives it as his opinion that the wording of the law is such as to permit the sending of delegates only to a conference having in view the single object set forth in the law, and no invitation can be accepted to a conference to consider the enlarged use of silver as money metal, or to consider remedies for the constant fluctuations in value between the two metals.

The president, in his talk with Mr.

McCreary, dissented from this view and avowed his intention to accept any invitation received. The president takes the ground, according to Mr. Mc-Creary, that the delegates on the part of the United States will not be confined merely to the discussion of the ratio to be recommended. It is more than probable, Mr. McCreary thinks, that some of them will be opposed to free coinage under any circumstances. He believes that of the three delegates to be appointed by the president, one, and probably two, will be single gold standard men, so as to make the delegation, as a ported here yesterday afternoon that whole, more representative of the va-Secretary Gresham had demanded the rious sentiments in this country on the monetary question. If such men are on the delegation they will not be tied down to a discussion of the ratio at which free coinage may be possible. It is the belief of the president that if a conference is called the invitations will be sent out by Germany, though the French government is believed to report. He said that it was of such a look with so much favor on the propocharacter that he would maintain sition of calling a conference that it is neglects to do so.

The Monroe Doctrine. Washington, March 20 .- Although the Allianca incident has not been closed, and is yet the subject of eager diplomatic tierce and carte, still there is reason to believe that questions of vastly more consideration are occupying the minds of the administration. It is not at all improbable that we have reached the stage where we must de-fend the Monroe doctrine or abrogate it. The relations of some of the weak republics of South America with European countries are far from agreeable, and the threatening attitude of Great Britain in Venezuela and Nice ragua causes alarm in our state department.

It is understood that Great Britain has made a demand upon Nicaragua for the payment of $75,000 within seven weeks as an indemnity for the expulsion of Mr. Hatch, the British consular agent, from Bluefields. A British warship is now on its way to Nicaragua to back up the British ultimatum. Great Britain seems to be the chief aggressor, with France a good second. It is very evident that the government of the United States will not tolerate the occupation of Nicaragua by any European government.

Adm. Meade, in command of a powerful squadron, is now at La Guayra. It was given out when the admiral sailed from New York that he was going on a practice cruise with his fleet to the southern seas. There is now a strong suspicion that there was more active business than mere sea maneuvering and fleet drilling in the minds of the authorities when the admiral was ordered to rendezvous on the Venezuelan coast. Before the arrival of the British man-of-war to enforce the British ultimatum in Nicaragua, Adm. Meade will have seven powerful steel ships within halling distance.
